

न्याय एव धर्मः JUSTICE IS DHARMA

The Police Complaints Authority (PCA), Govt. of NCT of Delhi, came into being to strengthen the criminal justice delivery system in the NCT of Delhi. Greater accountability of the Police is imperative to alleviate grievances of the common man, strengthen the trust of the public in the police and render justice. Against this backdrop, the motto for PCA, Delhi has been chosen as “न्याय एव धर्मः”, i.e. “Justice is Dharma”.

Dharma encompasses one's duties, conduct and virtues, which are often specific to one's stage of life or social position. Dharma plays a pivotal role in guiding individuals in leading a meaningful and fulfilling life, thereby embodying “Purushartha”.

It is said that for Justice to be served, it must be aligned to the Dharma. In fact, justice is Dharma itself.

Therefore, prompt delivery of justice to all sections of the society, in every case, is the call of Dharma. Dharma is the moral compass that guides individuals, ensuring harmony with self, the society and the cosmos. This is possible only through speedy delivery of justice to the populace at large.
